Urge Motorists to Slow Down; Spare Children

"School will soon be out and there will be a lot of children playing in our streets from morning until night. We are also noticing that many motorists are traveling at an excessive rate of speed. Unless we do something now to curb this, we're going to have our summer vacation period marred by a fatal accident to one or more children."

This was Councilman Thomas McGuire's preface to a request of the police department to be more vigilant from now on and to caution motorists about their speed. Mayor Tolson added that the department will soon have a new motorcycle to patrol the streets and this extra guard should reduce possibility of accidents.

Renew Contract for Animal Care

Altho Councilman George V. Powell vigorously objected to renewing the city's contract with the South Bay Humane Society for the disposal of unlicensed or injured animals when that subject was brought before the city council's attention Tuesday night, he later changed his mind and made the motion for the renewal. The motion was adopted.

Powell declared "We've got people here who can and will do the work. Last year the fees collected here by the society amounted to about $800 and that would be good pay for someone in Torrance." When other councilmen, City Clerk A. H. Bartlett and Police Chief G. M. Calder pointed out that it would cost considerable to equip a dog pound and maintain it, Powell changed his mind. Chief Calder reported that the so-
